Best Construction Journal Paper Award

Kiewit is sponsoring the first 'Best Construction Journal Paper Award' competition. All papers accepted for publication and/or published in ASC's International Journal of Construction Education (IJCER) during calendar year 2018 will be considered. Papers will be evaluated in early 2019 and the award presented at ASC's annual conference in April.

Evaluation criteria are:

- Relevancy to current industry challenges
- Solution applicability by industry members
- Best practice knowledge transfer to future industry members
- Best practice of academic research within the field of construction
